

All I Need to Know about Life I learned from Lawn Bowling

(Twenty Things to Know about Life)

- Miracles happen
- You never know what you are going to get
- I bowl therefore I am
- It's okay to cry
- Friends are like good wines; they get better with age
- Play fair and don't hit people
- Clean up your own mess
- Live a balanced life and take a nap during the afternoon
- The cream always rises to the top
- Death is only one shot away
- There is always another game and another day
- I'm not as smart as I thought I was
- Wearing white is always appropriate
- Reality is over-rated
- This is as good as it gets
- Two heads are better than one
- Strength is not the same as intelligence
- Playing is the best way to learn
- When an opportunity presents itself, take it
- If at first you don't succeed, you have three more bowls